1. [] Called Charlotte Gerber, in the office of Representative Bill Chappell, Jr. (D., Fla.), and gave her an interim report on the [] case and explained that, while employment opportunities were severely limited, we were exploring retirement entitlements and this will take a little more time. She thanked us for the interim report.

25X1

2. [] Delivered an Agency brochure to Ann Kamstra in Representative Gerald Ford's (R., Mich.) office.

25X1

3. [] Delivered to the office of Representative Gunn McKay (D., Utah), two Joint Economic Committee prints on the Soviet Economy. These had been requested by [] of Weber State University. []

4. [] Left with Bill Sullivan, in the office of Senator Robert Dole (R., Kan.), a missing portion of [] Soviet book which had been omitted from their office copy.

5. [] Talked with Mr. Hugh Durham, Deputy Chief, Legislative and Legal Section, Department of Justice, about the inquiry we have received from Representative Edward Koch (D., N.Y.) having to do with the availability of personal Agency files. Durham said the Koch letter had just reached his desk and they had taken no action on it as yet. I told him we were drafting some language for a reply, but thought it would be useful to be aware of one another's responses on this. Durham agreed and said he would be back in touch with us when Justice has firmed up a proposed answer.

14. [] Later in the day I met with Mr. James Lowenstein, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, who told me that the Agency's study on "Aid and Trade Activities of Communist Countries in Less Developed Areas of the Free World - 1970" does not include figures for Laos, North Korea, North Vietnam, or Cuba and that without such figures it would be impossible for the Committee to draw up a meaningful balance sheet for Soviet economic and military foreign aid. I told Mr. Lowenstein that I would relay the request. [] [] has been advised.
